The Miami County Home Show Opens at Hobart Arena

Recognized as the longest running home and garden show in the northern Miami Valley, The Western Ohio Home Builders Association proudly announces the dates of the Miami County Home & Garden Show, for February 17-19, 2023, at Hobart Arena in Troy. Leading the way in home renovation, the Miami County Home & Garden Show, presented by 84 Lumber, will feature numerous motivating ideas for your home! Home remodeling experts will be on hand to answer all your questions and will be ready to bring your ideas to life. With more than 70 professional service companies, there is certain to be something for every homeowner. You can also walk the Direct Sales Row and visit with companies like Tastefully Simple, Pampered Chef, Full Life Chiropractic, and many others. Get a taste of Miami County from Poppin' Off or check out the newest sensation...electric bikes from Pedego Electric Bikes of Troy.

Nothing breathes new life into a home more than a great new kitchen or bath. You'll find great ideas for updating your outdated kitchen with beautiful new cabinets at this show. If you want to turn your backyard into a staycation destination, this is place to start! Now more than ever homeowners are investing back into their homes and they need a place to start their search for the right contractor or service professional. The Miami County Home and Garden Show provides the opportunity for consumers to see the latest and greatest in home renovation and outdoor living. We will have everything from roofing to flooring, from inside to outside. If you can dream it, our contractors can deliver it.

If you just bought a new home and you want to outfit it with new window treatments and closet organizers, we have what you're looking for! Maybe you're getting ready to sell your home. We can help you put your best foot forward! Visit with a professional exterior power washing company to get your home ready to sell! Whatever your motivation to spruce up your home, you'll find it at this Show!
